1. This sea turtle is an herbivore, which tints the color of its skin and meat.	1. __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (1, 4)
2. This sea turtle is covered by a grey/black layer of flexible and leathery skin (where it gets its name).	2. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (2, 3)
3. This species can dive up to 4,000ft/1,200meters due to its flexible shell, the lack of a rigid breast bone, and its ability to absorb Nitrogen during its ascent. The often dive deep in search of jellyfish to eat.	3. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (5)
4. These sea turtles have a very large and thick head, which resembles a log (where the turtle gets it's name).	4. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (6)
5. This sea turtle gets its name for the shape of its beak which is pointed and sharp (hawk-like) compared to other species.	5. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (7, 8)
6. This is currently the most common sea turtle species in the waters of the United States, but is very rare to see on St. Maarten, a female of this species can lay up to 35lbs or 16kg of eggs in one year.	6. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (9)
7. These females only nest every two to three years and can lay about 200 eggs in each nest.	7. __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (11, 10)
8. Their shell is brightly colored and can make them fall prey to the 'tortoiseshell' trade (used in jewelry and ornaments) even though they are a protected species.	8. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (13)
9. These are the largest species of sea turtles found in the world growing from 6 to 9 feet long (2 to 3 meters) and weighing up to 2,000 pounds, but only living an average of 45 years.	9. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (14, 15)
10. These sea turtles have existed in their current form since the time of the dinosaurs!	10. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (16)
11. They can provide shelter with over 100 species being found living on the shells of these sea turtles.	11. __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ __ SEA TURTLE (17)

			T					F
1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17